

I am strongly opposed to the further relaxing of the current media ownership rules. This will strongly reduce the ability for smaller media outlets to compete in a market dominated by only a few conglomerates.